

AXIS SHOWS ONGOING COMMITMENT TO THE RETAIL SECTOR BY JOINING THE ASSOCIATION FOR RETAIL ENVIRONMENTS

Maspeth, N.Y., June 3, 2013—Axis Global Logistics—a leading provider of supply chain solutions to a companies operating in a variety of industries—announced that it is now a member of the Association for Retail Environments (A.R.E.).

“Axis is rapidly expanding its logistics services to the retail sector especially in such areas as retail fixture delivery and installation,” explained Brian Harvey, executive vice president of sales and marketing at Axis. “Our membership In the A.R.E. is just one example of our ongoing commitment to the retail industry.”

Axis specializes in designing and implementing logistics solutions for the retail industry based on the innovative concept of lean principles, or creating more value for customers by using fewer resources and more efficient processes—resulting in cost-savings. The company’s industry-leading Direct-to-Store program offers companies the fastest, most reliable delivery service available whether it involves the delivery and installation of store fixtures or a wide-range of other customer needs in the retail sector.

The Association for Retail Environments is an international non-profit trade association representing the retail environments industry. The association has more than 650 member companies from around the globe—they include store fixture suppliers, retail design firms, suppliers of visual merchandising products, and suppliers of materials and equipment for the retail environments industry. The association’s mission is to advance the industry and the success of member companies through on-site, on-line, and on-target venues that connect retailers and brand marketers with the professionals who bring their brands to life.
