

AXISOURCE OFFERS CUSTOMERS ONE-STOP BRANDING SOLUTION

Maspeth, N.Y., April 14, 2014—Axis Global Logistics—a leading provider of time-critical transportation services and customized supply chain solutions to companies in a variety of industries—announced that it now offers customers comprehensive branding solutions via its AxiSource division.

According to the company, AxiSource provides customers with a one-stop, cost-effective branding solution that features the best possible quality in such areas as branded apparel and promotional merchandise.

“Promoting your brand has become increasingly challenging in a marketplace that is more crowded with each passing day,” explained Lee Ann Grabicki, Managing Director of Axis’ AxiSource division. “The AxiSource team of global sourcing professionals will help you cut through that clutter and differentiate your brand.”

“Most importantly, AxiSource provides customers with a global supply chain solution,” Grabicki added. “We can help you manage an event from its inception to its conclusion through our logistics, installation and procurement services. This means that we truly offer a turnkey solution to our customers.”

Along with comprehensive branding solutions in such areas as branded apparel and promotional merchandise, AxiSource provides customers with global procurement services, corporate apparel and inventoried uniform programs, reward and recognition programs, supply chain management and fulfillment and distribution. All AxiSource services are built on a foundation of Axis Global Logistics’ worldwide capabilities, industry-leading technology and unmatched personal service.

For more information about AxiSource, please visit www.axisource.espwebsite.com or contact us at sourcing@axisg.com or 347-844-1617.

###