

BRIAN HARVEY NAMED TO CADRE'S CUSTOMER ADVISORY COUNCIL

Maspeth, New York, November 28, 2012—Brian Harvey, vice president for national sales and marketing at Axis Global Logistics, has been named to Cadre Technologies' Customer Advisory Council.

The appointment was made at the Cadre Technologies User Conference which took place recently in Denver, Colorado. The conference—which was attended by key Cadre customers and partners—focused on high volume eCommerce fulfillment software and warehouse logistics software.

As a member of Cadre's Advisory Council, Harvey will assist in planning future conferences and will provide input on Cadre's product roadmap and technical direction.

Cadre Technologies is a leading innovator of software for fulfillment and logistics operations including order management, warehouse management, transportation management and activity billing. The company is based in Denver, Colorado with offices in Lenexa, Kansas and Maryland.
